[Special Correspondence of the Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, June 3, 1889.

My telekram last night informed you of the organization of the Association. The the organization of the Association. The tellers appointed to count the votes for vice-presidents did not report until this morning, when they announced the election of the following: Professor N. K. Davis, Rev. Dr. A. B. Brown. Rev. R. The address of welcome, by Rev. Dr. T. T. Eaton, to which I made brief allusion in my telegram last night, was in every way

Second Day-Morning Session.

The President, General Field, called the Association to order at 9 o'clock, and Rev. Dr. J. B. Hawtborne led in prayer.

The Chair announced some additional committees, and the Association engaged in devotional exercises, in which Rev. Dr. Tyree led in prayer.

Rev. Dr. Hatcher tendered his resignation as vice-president, and on his nomination Rev. Samuel Harris was unanimously elected in his stead.

Rev. J. R. L. Smith, of Lynchburg, read the report of the Home Mission Board written by C. B. Fleet, E-q., corresponding secretary. This Board of the General Association is the representative in Virginia of the Home Mission Board of the Souther Bartist Convention, bearing at outbern Baptist Convention located at Marion, Ala.

The report states that the work of the parent Board during the past year has shown decided progress, and the outlook for the next year is decidedly encouraging. The receipts—over $20,000—though not as large as they ought to be, had been larger than the year before—Virginia giving $2,100, below the progression of the particles extensions. ides sustaining her own State missions.

The report gives interesting details of the work of the Board among the Indians where during the year a manual-labor school has been founded among the Creeks); the mission to the Chinese of California, where Rev. Dr. J. B. Hartwell is doing successful work; among the colored people of the South; among the destitute of our own

The Board has employed during the year thirtyty-four missionaries, who have done very hard and very successful work. Iuteresting and successful institutes for colored ministers had been held under the auspices of the Board. The report commends Kind Words, the Sunday-school paper of the Board, and spoke of its increased value since Rev. Dr. M. B. Wharton had been added to its core of additions. added to its corps of editors.

It closes with an expression of gratitude for what has been done, and an earnest ap-peal for larger contributions to enable the Goard to extend and enlarge its work. Rev. Dr. W. H. McIntosb, corresponding secretary of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, then addressed the Association at some length, dressed the Association at some leads, setting forth in detail the work, the needs, setting forth in detail the work, the needs, and the prospects of the Board. He said that the field of the Board is a large one, extending from Maryland to Florids, and tending from the Atlantic to the Pacitic. He made the point that while in some of the States, as in Virginia, the State Boards are doing their own work, yet in many other sections their own work, yet in many other sections, as in Florida, Louisiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, &c., there is very great destitution, which these older States must supply.

He gave some deeply-interesting details of a visit he had made to the Indian territory, and of the grand work which the Board had done to Christianize the red men of the forest. He insisted that Virginia ought to raise at least $4,000 next year for this Board.

Rev. J. L. Carroll offered as an amendment to the report a resolution to the effect that Virginia would endeavor to raise during the year at least $4,000, and that the Board at Lynchburg be requested to appor-tion this amount among the churches. Rev. Dr. C. Tyree cordially endorsed the resolution of Mr. Carroll, and carnestly urged that the churches ought to give to to this Board at least as large a sum as to any other Board. Rev. Dr. J. B. Hawthorne warmly endorsed the resolution. He quoted a great orator of the South as saying: "Of all continents I love the American continent most.

Of all countries on this continent I love the United States most. And of all the States of the United States I love most the one where I have a local habitation and a name."

He cordially endorsed the sentiment, and He cordially endorsed the sentiment, and would apply it to the matter in hand. He would give first to his own church; second, to State missions; third, to this Home Mission Board; and next to foreign missions. He called attention to the fact that this He called attention to the fact that this Board is doing a work which no other Board is engaged in—especially in their work among the Indians—and made an eloquent appeal for more liberal contributions to this grand work.

Rev. Dr. Hatcher would offer an amendment to the eloquent speech of his brother. He was willing to the order suggested, and that contributions should be given first to that contributions should be given first to State missions, second to home missions, and third to foreign missions; but he would have each contribution to grow, and as "the field is the world," he would have the churches still give twice as much to foreign churches still give twice as much to foreign as to home or State missions.

Hon. F. V. Winston, of Louisa, concurred in Dr. Hatcher's amendment.

Rev. Dr. A. B. Brown cordially endorsed the amendment," and quoted the correlating secretary of the State Mission and as saying two years ago that the purches ought to give twice as much to the state missions.

The amendment was adopted, and the resort as amended was adopted.

MESSENGERS FROM COLORED BAPTIST CONVEN-

Rev. Dr. W. D. Thomas reported that in redance with the resolution passed at the meeting of the General Association ev. F. R. "Dear Brethren in Christ,—It is with oy that we agree with you in opening this Christian correspondence between the two wings of our beloved denomination by sending our fraternal greetings to each other through our corresponding messengers and epistles, which, in our judgment, ought to have been done long ago, in order that a stronger Christian affection may exist between us as members of the same denomination. But that is not our fault, for we have long seen and felt the great need of a better Christian feeling and spirit between its as component parts of the great Reptist denomination of Virginia. And fer that reason we attempted to open such a Christian correspondence with you when you met in Petersburg before, but were denied that happy Christian privilege.

Captain J. H. Wright, of Suffolk, speaking as a layman, warmly endorsed the scheme, and earnestly appealed for more funds for this public object.

Hon. F. V. Winston, of Louisa, earnestly insisted that the churches, not as a charity, but as a selemn debt, should amply support by age or disease.

General R L. T. Beale made an earnest

THE INTRODUCTORY SERMON.

This was preached by Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway, of Fredericksburg, to a large and deeply-interested congregation. He announced as his text Titus i., 9: "Holding fast the faithful word as be bath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers." He deduced two leading points from the text:

1. The necessity of sound doctrine for orthodoxy of helief. We should accept God's Word in its full teachings, and reject all else. We should firmly hold the truth, 2. There should be great fidelity in teaching the truth, and more distinctive doctrinal preaching is needed.

These points the preacher elaborated into an able and very effective sermon, which seemed to produce a fine impression.

The second and third floor is laid off into four beautiful rooms, with bath, elosets, &c.

There are few stores in the city more beautifully and conveniently arranged than this, and beling situated in the basiest and most attractive part of Broad street, it offers advantages as a stand for the dry goods, shoe, family grocery, or, indeed, any other kind of busiless, scarcely to be equalled in this city.

The building is on ground leased for a term to ex-TRUSTEES' SALE OF THE VALUA dry goods, shoe, family grocery, or, indeed, any other kind of business, scarcely to be equatied in this city.

The building is on ground leased for a term to expire May 1st, 1883, subject to a ground-rent of $450 per annum, and is to be paid for by the owner of the ground at a fair valuation on May 1-t, 1883, unless the lease is renewed by mutual content, which can probably be done if desired.

This is a rare chance, and we hope it will be duly appreciated.

After the above, we will seil the HALL FURNITURE and FIXTURES, consisting of CARPETS, CHAIRS, DESKS, TABLES, CUPBOARDS, CANOPIES, &c., &c.

It iles between North mountain and Mill mountain; and with its large and well-arranged HOTEL BILLDING and COTTAGE RANGES it constitutes a beautiful group in a lovely valley.

Apart from its value as a summer resort, the sales of the water and alum mass would alone justify an investment at a hand-ome price.
